Cap Marina

ILE MAURICE

Mauritius

Nestled in the heart of the Indian Ocean, Mauritius is a true tropical paradise. In addition to its tourist appeal, the island is also an important business destination owing to its economic development and attractive tax system.

Stunning views

The setting right by the northern coast offers magnificent views of the five islets, including the Coin de Mire.

Only ten minutes away from Grand Baie, Cap Malheureux has a real paradisiac setting with its beach and fishermen moving about.

Cap Malheureux

Cap Marina is located in one of the most famous regions of Mauritius, Cap Malheureux. This picturesque fishing village is known for the emblematic red-roofed Chapel of Notre Dame Auxiliatrice. Salient features such as the proud fisherman's culture, the striking landscapes with the Coin de Mire as background make it evident that a more suitable location for Cap Marina will be difficult to find.

Gateway

to a world of elegance and refinement

Unique features

Cap Marina is characterized by its green, environment-friendly surroundings. Over and above these green features, a freshwater canal runs on 1.5 kilometres through the village.

A water village

Residents can cruise through the village in kayaks.

Museums

Two spectacular museums will be opened, one housing a rare collection of seashells and the other which will plunge the visitor into the historical past of pirates and corsairs.

Beach Lounge

A variety of restaurants, including dining facilities with a clubhouse and swimming pool overlooking the green park, offer cuisines for all tastes and nationalities.
